Dear W. S. Gildyther

This is only a hasty line of reply to your p.c. of the 14th. Your previous letter reached me safely and—as I have already written—you have arranged to read the proof of your St Louis paper. The two papers of which you speak have not reached me but they may be at Hartford.

I am writing to ask—

I have been reading hard here for my Cheops Satins next spring in the Phya and Ibn Khaldun's Muqaddima.
Can you explain to me the saying all ~~279~~ 279 all?

In a few days I will write more fully. Our very best regards in the meantime to W. S. Gildyther and yourself.
We trust your health is much improved. Faithfully, D. S. Woodward.
